2020 Is Unknown - Past Years Got Us Here

Almost 280 years ago recording a permanent image for posterity was seen for the first time. The invention of photography literally saw the light of day when Joseph Nicéphore Niépce in the Burgundy region of France made a twelve-hour exposure capturing an image from his bedroom window sill in 1826. Using Bitumen of Judea on metal the Bitumen hardened in proportion to the amount of light that hit it. Niépce called his process heliography.

A Short History of Other Photo Firsts

- First photo of a person - circa 1830s Louis Daguerre in Paris, France. A long exposure of a street image captures a guy getting shoes shined.
- The first Selfie photo - 1839 by Robert Cornelius, Center City, Philadelphia.
- First hoax photo - 1840, taken by Hippolyte Bayard to spite a competitor photographer.
- First photo of a moon - 1840, John W. Draper, NY University Observatory.
- First photo of a US President - 1843, John Quincy Adams taken after he was out of office.
- First photo of sun - 1845, Louis Fizeau & Leon Foucault - Daguerreotype 1/60 sec. exposure.
- First news photo - 1847, of a man arrested in France. Photojournalist who took it is unknown.
- First photo of US President in office - 1849, James J. Polk.
- First aerial photo - 1860, James Wallace Black, Boston from 2,000 ft. in hot-air balloon.
- First color photo - 1861, James Clerk Maxwell (Scientific process), taken by Thomas Sutton inventor of the SLR camera.
- First color landscape photo - 1877, Louis Authur Ducos du Hauron, taken of a small town in France.
- First photo of lightning - 1882, by William Jennings
- First photo of a tornado - 1884, by photo amateur A.A. Adams, a fruit farmer in Anderson County, KS.
- First photo from space - 1946, from a V-2 rocket, altitude of 65 miles
- First rocket launch photo - 1950 Cape Canaveral NASA.
- First digital photo - 1957 a digital scan of a film print shot by Russell Kirsch.
- First photo of Earth from Moon - 1966, by a Lunar orbiter received by Robledo De Chervil, Spain
- First photo from Mars - 1976, NASA from Viking 1 landing.
- First 3D photo portrait of US President - 2016, Barack Obama, by Smithsonian & USC Institute for Creative Technologies, fifty LED lights, eight ‘sports’ cameras, and six wide angle cameras.

This Year’s EPS All Members
Coast Camping Field Trip Destination

Bullards Beach State Park
Make your reservations now

• When -- Arrive Friday, September 18
Leave Tuesday, September 22

• What’s to do? -- Lots of daytime & nighttime photography, campfires, beach hikes, shopping, eating, etc.

• Campground -- If you’re camping, reserve a site at Bullards Beach State Park. We reserved site ‘A’1. It’s big with close parking for non-camping guests. There are over 75 sites in the campground, a few left in ‘A’ loop.
If you think you might go, make your reservations now.

• Non-campers -- there are a number of motels in Bandon. The closest to the campground (good Yelp reviews) is the Lamplighter Inn.

• Potluck -- We’ll have a potluck on Saturday night at the campground.

• Dinner out on Sunday -- We don’t know where yet. Suggestions?
A huge turnout last year at Brookings. Everybody had a great time.
Don’t miss out on this year’s trip. We want to see you there!
Thanks - Kevin Reilly & Rochelle Villanueva

Q & A With Tim Grey

Q: A simple problem is driving me nuts. In the Library module in Lightroom Classic I can’t show all pictures with a color label of purple unless I am in a collection or folder that only has purple labels. Hopefully, you can help my workflow.

A: If you want to filter your photos based on all images in your Lightroom Classic catalog you need to first choose “All Photos” in the Catalog section of the left panel in the Library module. You can then specify the filter criteria you want to use to locate specifically labeled photos.

Q: The Folders list in Lightroom Classic do not display some of the subfolders on my hard drive. How do I update those folders that are present on my hard drive so they are also present in Lightroom Classic?

A: The Folders list in Adobe Lightroom Classic only displays folders that contain photos being managed by Lightroom. Therefore, to view those folders in Lightroom you would need to import the photos (if applicable) contained within those folders.

Q: Are keywords and tags the same thing? I use Photoshop Elements along with Photoshop CS6 and skip Adobe Bridge entirely.

A: Yes, the Keyword Tags in Adobe Photoshop Elements represent the same metadata field as Keywords shown in other applications. The Photoshop Elements Organizer simply uses different terminology for keywords.

Q: Most of my photos are located on my desktop. The only way to post to Instagram is by sending them to my iPhone and then uploading? Is there an easier way?

A: You can share photos to Instagram from a computer by either using a software tool designed for this purpose (such as the LR/Instagram plug-in for Adobe Lightroom Classic), or by using a feature that simulates a mobile device with the web browser on your computer.

Q: What considerations (content, workflow, etc.) apply when creating keywords for images that will be submitted to stock agencies such as Getty Images or iStock?

A: When keywording photos that will be submitted to a stock agency, there are several considerations. First, you want to ensure that keywords are accurate. Also be thoroughly in line with the submission guidelines [for each] agency when you submit your photos, and make sure the keywords will help the photo be found by a client who may be interested in using the images.

Q: Recently moving from Houston to Michigan, I noticed that twilight time is increased here. My question regards the blue hour. Does it also increase more than the hour and is it altered by an overcast?

A: The duration of “blue hour” does indeed vary with the duration being shorter near the equator. One of the first things to understand about blue hour is that it isn’t considered to be a full hour. The term is just a shorthand reference to that period a bit after sunset and before sunrise when the sky is illuminated with blue light and the landscape is still relatively dark.
